No. 1713, dated 27*th July* 1858.—In supersession of the Notification from this Department, of the 20th November 1857,* the Hon'ble the President in Council is pleased to direct the publication, for general information, of the following Extract from the Proceedings in the Financial Department, dated the 21st Instant, No. 3915.

* G. G. O., Military Department, No. 1479 of 1857.

Read again the Resolution passed in this Department on the 13th November 1857, on the subject of granting assistance to sufferers in consequence of the mutinies.

Read a Minute by the Hon'ble the President, dated the 13th Instant, concurred in by the Hon'ble Sir J. Outram, the Hon'ble H. Ricketts, and the Hon'ble B. Peacock.

RESOLUTION.—The Hon'ble the President in Council has had reason to believe that local Officers have, in some cases, thought it necessary, under the words of the Order contained in the final Clause of Para. 2 of the Resolution passed in this Department, under date the 13th November 1857, on the subject of granting assistance to sufferers in consequence of the mutinies, to require formal Certificates of the loyalty of applicants for such assistance, when by reason of the class of persons to which such applicants belong, or by reason of any other circumstance, no doubt of their loyalty could possibly exist.

His Honor in Council observes that it was not the intention of Government that applicants, of whose loyalty no doubt could exist, should be required to furnish Certificates of their loyalty; and for that reason, as well as for the purpose of making it clear that East Indians were intended to have the benefit of the Rules, it is resolved that the orders of the 13th November 1857 be re-published in the following amended form, in the Official Gazette, in supersession of the orders published by the Home Department, under date the 20th November 1857; and His Honor in Council directs that the attention of the Local Governments under the Presidency of Fort William, be called to the change.

AMENDED RESOLUTION.—The Hon'ble Court, in their Public Despatch, No. 118 of 1857, dated the 26th August, having expressed an anxious desire that every measure of succour within the power of the Government should be promptly afforded to the survivors of those who have suffered from the loss of relations and property during the recent disturbances, especially to the widows and orphans of Civil and Military Officers, who have fallen victims to the outbreak, the Right Hon'ble the Governor General in Council considers that the different ways in which aid may be suitably afforded by the Government, are as follows:—

1*st*.—By grants of money to European, East Indian and Native Civil and Military Officers of the Government, who have lost the whole or a large portion of their property by the mutinies.

2*nd*.—By Pensions to the families of Uncovenanted Officers of the Government who have been killed in the mutinies, and have not left means either in property or in claims on any Insurance or Charitable Fund.

3*rd*.—By the grant of relief to the Bengal Military Fund, to enable it to meet the liabilities thrown upon it in consequence of the mutinies.

4*th*.—By grants of money to Europeans and others not in the service of the Government.

5*th*.—By Pensions to the destitute families of Europeans and East Indians killed in the mutinies.

6*th*.—By free passages on board Government Steamers.

2. With regard to grants of money to European, East Indian, and Native Officers of Government, His Lordship in Council is of opinion that the following principle should be observed—

1*st*.—That grants to Military Officers should be adjusted according to the scale allowed under the Pay and Audit Regulations to Officers of Artillery and Infantry, as compensation for the loss of Baggage and Camp Equipage when on duty in the Field, viz.:—

To a Colonel	Rs.	3,980	0	0
Lieutenant-Colonel ...	„	3,137	0	0
Major	„	2,813	0	0
Captain	„	2,024	0	0
Deputy and Assistant Commissary ...	„	1,450	0	0
Conductors, Apothecaries, and Stewards	„	920	15	0
Assistant Apothecaries and Stewards	„	606	14	1

To Native Officers, one month's pay and full Batta.

2*nd*.—That grants to Covenanted Civil Officers should be regulated on the same scale according to their relative rank.

3*rd*.—That grants to Uncovenanted Civil Officers should be awarded according to the undermentioned scale:—

If on salaries of Rs. 500 a month or upwards ...	Rs.	2,000
If on salaries of Rs. 250 a month or upwards ...	„	1,000
If on salaries of Rs. 100 a month or upwards ...	„	500
If on salaries of Rs. 50 a month or upwards ...	„	200
If on salaries of Rs. 25 a month or upwards ...	„	100
If on salaries in excess of 10 Rs. a month ...	„	50

Provided that, in the case of natives, no Donation or Pension shall be sanctioned, until it is ascertained that the applicant not only has in no way been concerned in mutiny or rebellion, but also that he has, to the extent of his ability, rendered active service to the British Government.

3. In every case also a declaration on honor should be required from the Officer concerned, to the effect that he has lost property to the full value of the sum awardable to him.

4. Claims to grants under this head should be preferred by Civil Officers and Military Officers in Civil employ to the authority of the district in which the loss occurred, and submitted by him, after such enquiry and with such remarks as he may think necessary to the Commissioner of the Division, who should be authorized to admit or reject the claim, subject, in the case of rejection, to an appeal to the local Government, whose decision should be final.

5. Claims to grants under this head by Military Officers on Regimental or Staff duty should be made to their Commanding Officer or the Head of their Department, who, after such enquiry as he may think necessary, may admit or reject the claim, subject, in the case of rejection, to an appeal to this Government.

6. No grant under this head will be made to the estate or family of a deceased Officer, the object being to enable Officers to supply themselves with necessary equipment without incurring debt, and no grant will be made to any Officer whose loss may seem to have occurred through any fault or neglect of his own.

7. With respect to the Pensions to be granted to the destitute widows and children of Uncovenanted Officers, who have lost their lives in consequence of the mutinies, His Lordship in Council observes that no fixed Rule exists for the determination of the amount of Pensions provided for their families by the Subscribers to the Uncovenanted Service Family Pension Fund; but that the Subscriptions to the Fund appear to be, for the most part, in proportion to the salaries of the several Members; and His Lordship in Council is of opinion that it will be equitable in granting Pensions in the cases under consideration, to divide the applicants into classes with reference to the salaries drawn by the deceased Officers, in somewhat the same manner as is proposed for the regulation of donations to Officers who have lost property, and to award Pensions equal to the average amount of Pensions subscribed for by Members of the Fund of each class.

8. The classes will be as follows :—

1*st*.—Cases in which the deceased men were drawing salaries of 500 Rupees a month and upwards.

2*nd*.—Cases in which the deceased men were drawing salaries of 300 Rupees a month and less than 500 Rupees.

3*rd*.—Cases in which the deceased men were drawing 200 Rupees a month and less than 300 Rupees.

4*th*.—Cases in which the deceased men were drawing 100 Rupees a month and less than 200 Rupees.

5*th*.—Cases in which the deceased men were drawing 50 Rupees a month and less than 100 Rupees.

9. Cases in which the deceased men were drawing less than 50 Rupees a month, will be decided with reference to the peculiar circumstances of each, on the understanding that, as a general rule, Pensions to widows shall not be granted in excess of 1-5th of the pay of the deceased Officers, or to children in excess of 1-4th of the Pensions of the widows.

10. In all cases the Pensions of widows shall cease on re-marriage, those of sons on their attaining the age of 18 years, and those of daughters on marriage.

11. In exceptional cases Pensions will be allowed to other female relatives.

12. All applications for such Pensions must be submitted, in the usual manner, through the local Civil Authorities.

13. As regards the grant of relief to the Military Fund, the Governor General in Council considers that it will be more advisable to undertake the annual payment of the Pensions of those who have become entitled to them, than to make over to the Fund a sum equal to the present value of those Pensions.

14. With reference to grants of money to Europeans or East Indians not being Civil or Military Officers of the Government, His Lordship in Council considers that such grants should be given to those who have lost all or nearly all their property in consequence of the mutinies, and who have not the means of setting themselves up again either in business or otherwise.

15. Similar grants will be made to those persons, not being Europeans or East Indians, who may be certified, by any Officer authorized by Government to give the Certificate, to have sustained damage in consequence of, or whilst rendering active assistance to the Government.

16. In no case should a grant under this head exceed Rupees 2,000, the maximum allowed to Uncovenanted Officers, and the amount should be regulated according to the circumstances of each case.

17. Applications for grants under this head should be made to the local Civil Officers, and submitted by them to the Commissioners of Divisions after such enquiry and with such remarks as may be deemed necessary. The Commissioners will submit a general statement of such claims for the final decision of the local Government.

18. Pensions to the destitute families of Europeans or East Indians not in the service of Government killed in the mutinies will be granted on the same terms as to the families of Uncovenanted Civil Servants of the Government, regard being had to the circumstances of life in each case, and special consideration being shown for the families of those who may have died in the temporary service of the State.

19. Free passages in Government and private Steamers have been granted already to all women and children proceeding from the stations up the country to Bengal. A similar indulgence will be allowed to such persons returning to their homes when the prohibition against residence in the disturbed districts is removed.

20. This indulgence, however, will be restricted to passages on board Government Steamers or in private Steamers taken up by the Government for the conveyance of stores, on the understanding that it will not be allowed to interfere with the conveyance of troops or of persons proceeding up the country on the Public Service.

ORDER.—Ordered, that a copy of the above Resolution be forwarded to the Home Department, for information and guidance and for publication in the Official Gazette.

No. 478 A.

FROM

THE ADJT. GENL. OF THE ARMY,

TO

THE SECY. TO THE GOVT. OF INDIA,
Military Department,
with the Govr. Genl.
Head Quarters Allahabad,
The 7th July 1858.

SIR,

IT having been brought to the notice of the Commander-in-Chief, that the services of the 2nd Battalion Military Train, under Lieutenant-Colonel J. P. Robertson, have not been adequately acknowledged in the Despatches connected with the relief of Lucknow in November 1857, and the capture of that City in March last, His Excellency desires to rectify these omissions.

2. The Military Train joined the Force under the personal orders of the Commander-in-Chief, just prior to the relief of Lucknow; and with portions of Her Majesty's 9th Lancers and Punjaub Cavalry, under Brigadier A. Little, was usefully and actively employed at the Dilkhoosha, in protecting the stores, and covering the rear of the Troops engaged in the relief of the Residency, during which period the Cavalry were daily engaged with the Enemy.

3. At the capture of Lucknow, the Military Train again rendered good and gallant service, particularly on the occasion of an attack made on our Troops at Alum Bagh, on the 16th March, when a very large force of the Enemy's Horse was kept in check and repulsed, principally by the fire of Artillery, aided by the bold countenance shown by the Military Train.

4. His Excellency has pleasure in bearing witness to the efficient service rendered by the 2nd Battalion Military Train, and while recommending the Corps to the favorable consideration of the Right Hon'ble the Governor General, trusts that His Lordship will order steps to be taken to rectify the ommission of acknowledgements for the services of the Corps in the Despatches above adverted to.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,

W. MAYHEW, Lieut-Colonel,
Adjt. Genl. of the Army.

Regiment or Corps.	Rank and Names.	Act of bravery for which recommended.
Bengal Artillery ...	Captain (now Lieutenant-Colonel) William Olpherts. Date of act of bravery, 25th September 1857.	For highly distinguished conduct on the 25th of September 1857, when the Troops penetrated into the City of Lucknow, in having charged on horseback, with Her Majesty's 90th Regiment, when gallantly headed by Colonel Campbell, it captured two guns in the face of a heavy fire of grape, and having afterwards returned, under a severe fire of musketry, to bring up limbers and horses to carry off the captured ordnance, which he accomplished. (Extract from Field Force Orders of the late Major-General Havelock, dated 17th October 1857.)
1st Madras Fusiliers ...	Serjeant Patrick Mahoney. Date of act of bravery, 21st September 1857.	For distinguished gallantry (whilst doing duty with the Volunteer Cavalry) in aiding in the capture of the Regimental Colour of the 1st Regiment Native Infantry at Mungulwar, on the 21st of September 1857. Ditto ...	Private John Ryan. Date of act of bravery, 26th September 1857. He was most anxious to visit every dooly. (Extract from Divisional Orders of Major-General Sir James Outram, G. C. B., dated 16th October 1857.)
Ditto ...	Private Thomas Duffy.	For his cool intrepidity and daring skill, whereby a 24-pounder gun was saved from falling into the hands of the Enemy. (Extract from Divisional Orders of Major-General Sir James Outram, G. C. B., dated 16th October 1857.)

Her Majesty has also been graciously pleased to signify Her intention to confer the Decoration of the Victoria Cross on the under-mentioned Officers of the East India Company's Armies, who have been recommended to Her Majesty for that Decoration, in accordance with the Rules and Regulations laid down in Her Majesty's Warrant before referred to, on account of acts of bravery performed by them in India, viz. :—

Regiment or Corps.	Rank and Names.	Act of bravery for which recommended.
Bengal Veteran Establishment ...	Captain George Forrest. Date of act of bravery, 11th May 1857.	For gallant conduct in the defence of the Delhi Magazine on the 11th May 1857.
Ditto ...	Captain William Raynor. Date of act of bravery, 11th May 1857.	For gallant conduct in the defence of the Magazine at Delhi on the 11th May 1857.
Commissariat Department Bengal Establishment ...	Deputy Assistant Commissary of Ordnance John Buckley. Date of act of bravery, 11th May 1857.	For gallant conduct in the defence of the Magazine at Delhi on the 11th May 1857.
2nd Punjab Cavalry ...	Captain (now Major) Dighton Macnaghten Probyn.	"Has been distinguished for gallantry and daring throughout this campaign. At the battle of Agra, when his Squadron charged the Rebel Infantry, he was some time separated from his men, and surrounded by five or six Sepoys. He defended himself from the various cuts made at him, and before his own men had joined him had cut down two of his assailants. At another time, in single combat with a Sepoy, he was wounded in the wrist by the bayonet, and his horse also was slightly wounded; but though the Sepoy fought desperately, he cut him down. The same day he singled out a standard-bearer, and, in the presence of a number of the Enemy, killed him and captured the standard. These are only a few of the gallant deeds of this brave young Officer." Despatch from Major-General James Hope Grant, K. C. B., dated 10th January 1858.
1st Punjab Cavalry ..	Lieutenant John Watson. Date of act of bravery, 14th November 1857.	"Lieutenant Watson, on the 14th November, with his own Squadron and that under Captain, then Lieutenant, Probyn, came upon a body of the Rebel Cavalry. The Ressaldar in Command of them,—a fine specimen of the Hindustani Mussulman,—and backed up by some half dozen equally brave men, rode out to the front. Lieutenant Watson singled out this fine looking fellow, and attacked him. The Ressaldar presented his pistol at Lieutenant Watson's breast, at a yards distance, and fired; but most providentially, without effect; the ball must, by accident, have previously fallen out. Lieutenant Watson ran the man through with his sword and dismounted him; but the Native Officer, nothing daunted, drew his tulwar, and with his Sowars renewed his attack upon Lieutenant Watson, who bravely defended himself until his own men joined in the melee, and utterly routed the party. In this rencontre, Lieutenant Watson received a blow on the head from a tulwar, another on the left arm, which severed his chain gauntlet glove, a tulwar cut on his right arm, which fortunately only divided the sleeve of the jacket, but disabled the arm for some time; a bullet also passed through his coat and he received a blow on his leg, which lamed him for some days afterwards." Despatch from Major-General James Hope Grant, K. C. B., dated 10th January 1858.

MEMORANDUM.

Lieutenants Duncan Charles Home and Philip Salkeld, Bengal Engineers, upon whom the Victoria Cross was provisionally conferred by Major-General Sir Archdale Wilson, Bart, K. C. B., for their conspicuous bravery in the performance of the desperate duty of blowing in the Cashmere Gate of the Fortress of Delhi, in broad daylight, under a heavy fire of musketry, on the morning of the 14th September 1857, preparatory to the assault, would have been recommended to Her Majesty for confirmation in that distinction, had they survived.

It is hereby notified that Narain Rao Mahadeo Muzmoondar, the holder of a Bhundarry (or Guarantee from the British Government) at the Court of Baroda, has forfeited his Bhundarry through misconduct.

No. 2277.

Allahabad, the 24th July 1858.

The Right Hon'ble the Governor General is pleased to publish, for general information, the following extract (Para. 1) from a letter from the Governor General's Agent for Central India, dated 6th Instant, together with a Memo. by Dr. Christison, late of the Gwalior Contingent, and a List of the Officers and others, who were murdered by the Mutineers and Rebels at Gwalior in June 1857:—

Extract from a Letter from the Governor General's Agent for Central India, to Secretary to Government of India, with the Governor General, No. 295, dated Camp Gwalior, 6th July 1858.

Para. 1.—One of my first objects after the Troops had occupied Morar, was to ascertain what had become of the bodies of the unfortunate victims of the Mutiny in June last year. I learnt that all had been buried in the Grave-yard of the Cantonment, by order of the Maharajah, under the direction of Colonel Filose, of His Highness' Service, and, on visiting the ground, I saw the newly constructed tombs, but until the arrival of Dr. Christison, late of the Contingent, I could not obtain more accurate information. Dr. Christison having kindly offered his services, I placed the matter in his hands, and have now the honor to submit a Memo. drawn up by him, which cannot fail to be in some degree consolatory to the relatives of the deceased, and affords proof of the desire of Maharajah Scindia to pay respect to the remains of those murdered by the treacherous Sepoys of the Contingent.

MEMORANDUM.

On the third day after the Mutiny at Gwalior, on the 14th June 1857, Byroo Sing, Kutwal at Gwalior, came to the Cantonment by order of His Highness Maharajah Scindia to inter the bodies of those who had been murdered. He had no difficulty in identifying them, as they were neither stripped nor mutilated. He was opposed by the Sepoys, who at first would not allow him to do anything, afterwards insisted on the bodies being removed beyond the bounds, but at last consented to his doing as he pleased; six bodies were buried at the Nullah opposite the Cavalry lines, three opposite the Artillery lines, three opposite the 4th Infantry lines, two opposite the 2nd Infantry lines. The body of Major Blake was buried by the Sepoys of the 2nd Regiment in the Grave-yard; one body was buried on the bank of the river below the Bungalow known as the School-room; and on the opposite bank of the river two other bodies were interred.

Only two bodies remain unaccounted for.

On the 16th December 1857, the bodies were exhumed under the supervision of Byroo Sing, and several Christian servants of Colonel Filose of the Maharajah's Service, and placed in separate coffins, and removed to the Grave-yard, where they were interred in 17 graves, there being two rows of 8 in each, and one by itself, containing the bodies of Captain Hawkins and his child. There were thus 18 persons interred out of the total of 20 killed. One adult and one infant remain unaccounted for.

I personally inspected the ground where the first interment was made, and am perfectly satisfied that Byroo Sing's account is correct, as I saw all the graves except one or two that the rain had washed away.

Each grave in the Grave-yard is covered by a large slab of Pucka work of stone and lime, and being numbered and registered, it is known almost exactly which is that of each individual.

To

COLONEL WETHERALL, C. B.,

Chief of the Staff, C. I. F. F.,

Camp Calpee.

Camp at Belowah, 31*st May* 1858.

SIR,

I HAVE the honor to report, for the information of the Major General Commanding in Central India, that I attacked the Rebel Thakoor Burjore Sing this morning, killing and dispersing his whole band.

2. Late yesterday evening, being then at Orai, I received from Captain Pinkney information which I thought might be relied upon, that Burjore Sing was at his stronghold of Belowah. I determined to move at once, and by making a forced march, surprise and surround him. I accordingly moved from Orai at 10 P. M., with the whole of my Force,* and from Girtan, a village half way to this, I pushed on ahead with the Cavalry at a rapid pace. The distance from Orai to this is about 19 miles.

* 1st Cavy. 165 Sabres, Lieut. Dowker Commanding
4th do. 162 do. Lt. Dun, Comdg.
1st Co. Arty. 2 6-Pr. Guns. [Mortars.
4th Ary. * 2 12-Pr. Hwtzrs. 2 5½-inch
Left Wing 3rd Infy., 344 Bayonets, Lieutenant Macquoid Commanding.
Siege Train attached { 1 18-Pr. Gun. / 2 8-inch Mortars.
Sappers and Miners attached, 22 Bayonets.

3. We arrived about day-break. I at once threw my Cavalry round the whole place, and waited for the Infantry and Guns. The alarm was speedily given and a fire opened upon us from the Ghurry, which, however, did no execution. The Rebels in a short time appeared outside the Fort and Town in a large mass, numbering from 200 to 250. Under the cover of a garden they formed up, and moved forward in a compact body, and in regular formation. Collecting some of my picquets, but keeping others to watch the Ghurry, I advanced the Cavalry* against this mass, with the view to embarrass and impede their progress, until the Artillery and Infantry, which then appeared in sight, should come up.

* 81 Sabres.

4. The Guns of the Light Field Battery having got within range, I opened with shell and shrapnell and with good effect. The Cavalry then charged and cut up a number of both Horsemen and Foot; but the Rebels threw themselves into some deep and strong ravines running towards the Betwah, and to attack or dislodge them from which was very difficult. These ravines are of the same nature as those about Calpee, and many of them are filled with a mass of prickly thorn bushes. The Enemy fought desperately. In such ground, and fighting under such disadvantages, it was to be expected that our loss would be heavy. I much regret to say, our casualties are heavier than I had even feared would be the case, and we have lost 7 killed, and 4 wounded in the Infantry alone. Burjore Sing was present, but I much regret to say, effected his escape. His horse and standard were taken, and he himself only got away by threading the ravines on foot, and having stripped himself of almost all his clothing. He lost every thing he had with him. His horses, camels, and all his property were captured.

5. But though he has this time escaped capture, his power and influence must for the present be completely broken by the death or dispersion of his entire band; and I trust the example made, will have a good effect throughout this disturbed part of the country. I estimate the killed at between 120 and 150, and I have 35 prisoners, who will be brought to trial upon the charge of being in arms against the British Government.

6. I am in possession of the Fort or Ghurry, and have commenced the necessary steps for having it dismantled, and its defences destroyed. This would have detained me here to-morrow, even had the long march of last night, and to-day's operations, not rendered a day's halt necessary.

7. I beg to bring to the favorable notice of the Major General, the names of all the Officers engaged. Their gallantry, alacrity, and zeal were most marked, and deserve my best thanks.

Lieutenant Dowker, Commanding 1st Cavalry.

Lieutenant Macquoid, Adjutant 5th Infantry, and Commanding Left Wing 3rd Infantry.

Lieutenant Dun, Second in Command 4th Cavalry.

Lieutenant Fraser, Adjutant 4th Cavalry and Staff Officer Field Force.

Lieutenant Westmacott, 23rd Bengal Native Infantry, doing duty 4th Cavalry H. C., severely wounded.

Surgeon Orr, 4th Cavalry, Senior Surgeon Field Force.

Assistant-Surgeon Sanderson, 1st Cavalry Hyderabad Contingent.

8. My best thanks are also due to Captain Pinkney, Commissioner of Jhansie, for his services during the Action, as also for his ready assistance on all occasions.

9. I beg to forward Casualty Rolls of men and horses killed and wounded.

I have the honor to be,

NOTIFICATION.

THE Naval Brigade of Her Majesty's Steam Frigate Shannon will shortly return to the Presidency.

The eminent services rendered by this Brigade under its distinguished Commander, the late lamented Sir William Peel, from the time when it was first placed at the disposal of the Government, nearly a year ago, to the final capture of Lucknow, have already received the cordial thanks of the Government of India, and have been rewarded by the approbation of the Sovereign.

More lately, this fine body of Seamen has been most usefully employed in the Lower Provinces of the Bengal Presidency, and their services, though in a less brilliant field, have not been less cheerfully rendered under Commander Vaughan, and latterly under Captain Marten.

The Hon'ble the President in Council is desirous that on its return to the Port of Calcutta from this remarkable expedition, the Brigade should be received with the honors it so well deserves.

All Civil, Military, and Naval Servants of Her Majesty and the East India Company at the Presidency, except those on duty, are accordingly requested to assemble for this purpose at the Railway Ghaut, opposite the Howrah Terminus, at a time to be fixed hereafter.

The Public are also invited to attend.

The Troops in Town and Garrison will be paraded, and all Ships of War and Government Vessels in the River will be dressed in honor of the occasion.

By order of the Hon'ble the President of the Council of India in Council.

POSTAL NOTICE.

THE Southampton Mail for Bombay which left England on the 12th of June, was by some mischance, detained en route, and was brought on by a Ship from Aden, arriving at Bombay on the 22nd of July only, together with the portion of the Southampton Mail for Bombay which left England with the Madras and Calcutta Mails on the 20th of June. The Bombay Boxes by this latter Mail, contained, it appears, many covers for Calcutta and Bengal, which ought to have been included in the boxes for Calcutta, and the Mail of the 12th of June also contained covers for Calcutta and Bengal.

The above circumstances therefore will account for a great deal of irregularity in the receipt of the letters and newspapers despatched from England in June.

THE following Act, passed by the Legislative Council of India, received the assent of the Right Honorable the Governor General on the 31st July 1858 (communicated to the Legislative Council on the 7th August 1858), and is hereby promulgated for general information:—

ACT No. XXIX OF 1858.

An Act for the relief of persons who, in consequence of the recent disturbances, have been prevented from instituting or prosecuting suits or appeals in the Civil Courts of the North-Western Provinces within the time allowed by law.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, during the recent disturbances, many of the Civil Courts in the North-Western Provinces were compelled to suspend their sittings for considerable periods; and whereas, during this interval, the time allowed by law for instituting and prosecuting original suits and appeals has in many cases expired, and it is proper to provide relief for the plaintiffs and appellants in such cases; It is enacted as follows:—

Further time allowed for instituting or prosecuting certain suits and appeals in consequence of the suspension of the sittings of the Civil Courts.

1. Whenever, subsequently to the 10th May 1857, the sittings in any Civil Court in the North-Western Provinces may have been suspended in consequence of the disturbed state of the country, it shall be competent to such Court to receive and try, or to re-admit any original suit or appeal within its jurisdiction, in which the period allowed by law for instituting or prosecuting the same may have expired during the time that the sittings of such Court were so suspended, provided that the plaintiff or appellant, according as the case may be, shall present his petition of plaint or appeal, or, if the suit or appeal shall have been previously instituted but shall have abated for want of prosecution, shall make an application for the re-admission of the same within the period of three months from the date on which the principal Civil Court of original jurisdiction in the District shall issue a proclamation, copies of which shall be affixed in some conspicuous place in the several Courts and in the Office of the Collector and Magistrate of the District, notifying that the Courts of the District, or such of them as it is intended to re-establish, have resumed their sittings.

Further time allowed for prosecuting certain suits and appeals in consequence of the difficulty of access to the Courts.

II. In like manner any Civil Court in the North-Western Provinces may receive and try, or re-admit any original suit or appeal in which the period allowed by law for instituting or prosecuting the same may have expired subsequently to the said 10th May 1857, if it shall appear to the satisfaction of such Court that the plaintiff or appellant in such suit or appeal was precluded from instituting or prosecuting it within the limited period, owing to the disturbed state of the country whereby access to such Court was rendered dangerous or difficult, provided that the plaintiff or appellant, according as the case may be, shall present his petition of plaint or appeal, or, if the suit or appeal shall have been previously instituted but shall have abated for want of prosecution, shall make an application for the re-admission of the same within three months from the passing of this Act or from the time when the cause above stated shall cease to exist.

Application for admission of special appeals to whom to be presented.

III. If the application be for the admission of a special appeal, the appellant may present his application either in the Sudder Court, or in the Court from whose decision the appeal is made for transmission to the Sudder Court.

Stamps in what cases necessary.

IV. The petition of plaint or appeal in any original suit or regular or special appeal falling within the provisions of this Act, which may be instituted, for the first time, under Section I or Section II, shall be written on stamp paper of the value prescribed for regular suits and appeals; but an application for the re-admission of an original suit or appeal, which shall have been previously instituted but shall have abated for want of prosecution, may be written on plain paper.

Saving of certain proceedings had after 10th May 1857.

V. No original suit or appeal, which may have been instituted or re-admitted in any Civil Court in the North-Western Provinces subsequently to the said 10th May 1857, shall be liable to be dismissed, nor shall any decision passed in any such suit or appeal be reversed on the ground that at the date of its institution the period allowed by law for the admission of the suit or appeal had expired, or that the suit or appeal had abated for want of prosecution (according as the case may be); if, at the time the period allowed by law for instituting or prosecuting such suit or appeal expired the sittings in the Court by which it was cognizable, or in which it was pending were suspended, or access to such Court was rendered dangerous or difficult by reason of the disturbed state of the country.

Certificate of Zillah Judge to be conclusive evidence of the suspension of the sittings of the Court, &c.

VI. For the purposes of this Act, the certificate of the Zillah Judge that the sittings in any Court within his jurisdiction were suspended, or that access to any such Court was rendered dangerous or difficult, owing to the disturbed state of the country during any particular period, shall be deemed conclusive evidence of the fact.

Extension of Act.

VII. This Act may be extended by the Governor General in Council, or by the Executive Government of any Presidency or place, to any District within the limits of their respective jurisdictions.

Clerk of the Council.

No. 1177 of 1858.—The following Extracts from the London Gazette of the 27th April 1858, is published for general information :—

WAR OFFICE, 24TH OF APRIL 1858.

The Queen has been graciously pleased to signify her intention to confer the Decoration of the Victoria Cross on the under-mentioned Officers, Non-Commissioned Officers, and Men of Her Majesty's and of the East India Company's Armies, who have been recommended to Her Majesty for that Decoration, in accordance with the Rules laid down in Her Majesty's Warrant instituting the same, on account of acts of bravery performed by them in India, as recorded against their several names, viz. :—

Regiment or Corps.	Rank and Names.	Act of bravery for which recommended.
Bengal Artillery ..	Lieutenant-Colonel Henry Tombs, C. B., and Lieutenant James Hills. Date of act of bravery, 9th July 1857.	For very gallant conduct on the part of Lieutenant Hills before Delhi, in defending the position assigned to him in case of alarm, and for noble behaviour on the part of Lieutenant-Colonel Tombs in twice coming to his Subaltern's rescue, and on each occasion killing his man. (See Despatch of Lieutenant-Colonel Mackenzie, Commanding 1st Brigade Horse Artillery, dated Camp, near Delhi, 10th July 1857, published in the Supplement to the London Gazette of the 16th January 1858.)
24th Bombay Native Infantry ..	Lieutenant William Alexander Kerr. Date of act of bravery, 10th July 1857.	On the breaking out of a mutiny in the 27th Bombay Native Infantry in July 1857, a party of the Mutineers took up a position in the stronghold or paga near the town of Kolapore, and defended themselves to extremity. "Lieutenant "Kerr, of the Southern Mahratta Irregular Horse, "took a prominent share of the attack on the "position, and at the moment when its capture "was of great public importance, he made a dash "at one of the gateways, with some dismounted "horsemen, and forced an entrance by breaking "down the gate. The attack was completely "successful, and the defenders were either killed, "wounded, or captured, a result that may with "perfect justice be attributed to Lieutenant Kerr's "dashing and devoted bravery." (Letter from the Political Superintendent at Kolapore, to the Adjutant General of the Army, dated 10th September 1857.)
Bengal Sappers and Miners ...	Serjeant John Smith. Date of act of bravery, 14th September 1857.	"For conspicuous gallantry, in conjunction with "Lieutenants Home and Salkeld, in the performance "of the desperate duty of blowing in the Cashmere "Gate of the fortress of Delhi in broad daylight, "under a heavy and destructive fire of musketry, "on the morning of the 14th September 1857, "preparatory to the assault." (General Order of Major-General Sir Archdale Wilson, Bart, K. C. B., dated Head Quarters, Delhi City, September 21st 1857.)
Bengal Horse Artillery ...	Serjeant Bernard Diamond and Gunner Richard Fitzgerald. Date of act of bravery, 28th September 1857.	For an act of valour performed in action against the Rebels and Mutineers at Boolundshur, on the 28th September 1857, when these two Soldiers evinced the most determined bravery in working their gun under a heavy fire of musketry, "whereby "they cleared the road of the Enemy, after every "other man belonging to it had been either killed "or disabled by wounds." 11. The Officer Commanding the Sappers and Miners can restore any man to Class A.; but no Non-Commissioned or Sapper can be placed by him on it originally, until his qualifications have been recorded by a Regimental Committee.

12. Men not enrolled in Class A. will, if Non-Commissioned Officers, be rated in the 1st Class, but if of any other rank, the rating in the 1st, 2nd or 3rd Class will be regulated according to the talent and industry of the individual, the same to be determined by the Officer Commanding the Corps of Sappers, upon a written report from the Officer Commanding the Company, under whose direction such Sappers and Miners shall have been employed.

13. Non-Commissioned Officers and Sappers will be paid the rates of working pay for their own Class, even when employed on the duties of a lower Class.

B., Commanding Soraon Field Force, dated the 15th and 18th Instant, the former reporting the capture of the Village and Fort of Dehaign, and the latter reporting the subsequent capture of the Fort of Ziroul:—

FROM

BRIGADIER BERKELEY, C. B.,
Comdg. Soraon Field Force,

TO

MAJOR-GENL. SIR W. MANSFIELD, K. C. B.,
Chief of the Staff.

Camp Soraon, 15th July 1858.

SIR,

I HAVE the honor to report, for the information of His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, that I yesterday attacked and captured the Village and Fort of "Dehaign," employing for that purpose, the Force as per margin.

Major Mitchel.
½ E. Troop, R. H. A.,
Lieutenant Cottingham.
No. 4 Co. 4th B. R. A.
1 18-Pr.
1 8-inch Mortar.
1 24-Pr. Howtzr.
2 5½-inch Mortar.
Lieut.-Col. Carmichael.
H. M.'s 32nd L. I. 200 Bayonets.
Brevet-Major Gillum.
Det. H. M.'s 54th 80, Bayts.
Lieut. Gordon.
7th Punjab Infantry 542 Bayts.
Lieutenant Richard.
Det. Sikhs Ferzr. 70 Bayts.
Lieut.-Col. Whistler.
Det. 6th M. L. C., 52 Sabres.
Captain Balmain.
Lahore L. H. 60 Sabres.

2. The Rebels retired into the Fort on our approach, allowing the skirmishers to occupy the village with very little opposition.

3. I directed Patrols of Cavalry to encircle the Fort, and posted the Horse Artillery with a Cavalry escort, on ground where they would have a good view of any Rebels attempting to escape from the North side.

4. On the arrival of the heavy Guns, I caused them to open in the direction pointed out to us by natives, but it was impossible to judge what effect was produced, the Fort being completely hidden by trees and thick scrubby jungle. I determined therefore to attack at once with the Infantry, and ordered the 7th Punjaub Regiment to advance in skirmishing order, supported by the Detachment of the 54th Regiment, under Command of Major Gillum, the 24-Pounder Howitzer followed close in rear, guarded by a Company of Her Majesty's 32nd Light Infantry.

5. The 7th Punjaub Infantry in two bodies respectively headed by Lieutenant Gordon who was in Command of the Regiment, and Captain Colls of the 32nd Light Infantry, Field Engineer, dashed gallantly forward, and following the Enemy rapidly up, entered the wicket along with them, closely followed by the Detachment, Her Majesty's 54th Regiment.

6. About two hundred and fifty of the Rebels were killed in the ditch, the rest were rapidly chased through the jungle and cut down in every direction, about a hundred and fifty of those that escaped from the Fort were cut up by the Cavalry and Horse Artillery, but several parties succeeded in getting off owing to the paucity of Cavalry in all about five hundred were killed.

7. "Dehaign" cannot properly be called a Fort; it is a large area of jungle surrounded by a dilapidated earthen wall and ditch, and fenced with a thorny abbattis; in the centre is a square brick-house, in this I have left a strong Seikh picquet to protect the laborers. Mr. Willock has procured to cut the jungle, level the walls, &c., when that is done, the picquet will be withdrawn and the house destroyed; no Guns were found in the Fort.

8. Both Officers and Men exerted themselves to the utmost, and I trust will be considered to have merited the approbation of His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief. Mr. Willock, Joint Magistrate, accompanied me, and rendered every assistance in his power.

9. I close herewith a Return of Casualties which I am happy to say, are very few, also a Nominal Roll.

I have the honor to be,

SIR,

Your most obedient Servant,

F. BERKELEY, Brigdr.,
Comdg. Soraon Field Force.

MAJOR.-GENL. SIR WM. MANSFIELD, K.C.B.,
Chief of the Staff.

Soraon, 18th July 1858.

SIR,

I HAVE the honor to report, for the information of His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, that on the 16th Instant, I proceeded with the Soraon Field Force as per margin, to attack the Fort of Tiroul, 7 miles North of this Camp.

Cavalry attached to Punjaub Infantry 28.

2. We found the village deserted and took up our position on the only open side of the Fort, which is to the West, without any more resistance than an occasional round shot from the fort.

3. The Fort is surrounded on three sides by an impenetreble thorny jungle, a few footpaths being cut in it which are known only to the natives; it is also surrounded by a very thick thorny abbattis, has six bastions and mounted three Guns, the escarp and parapet are about twenty-five feet high, in some places rather less; on the West or open side is the gateway, closing with a strong door, which is the only entrance to the Fort. This side was fenced in with a double abbattis, having a passage twelve feet wide between them; in rear of the inner one were trenches and "places d'Armes," for the defenders of the breast-work who could, if forced, retreat into the Fort through the gateway, and leave the attacking part exposed to the close fire of the loopholed walls.

4. Although I call this side open, it is only comparatively so, as what with the high thorny abbattis, and the trees, it is with the greatest difficulty that a glimpse can be obtained of any part of the wall.

5. The Mortars and 24-Pounder Howitzer did their work luckily and well, and the Enemy evacuated the Fort in the night, leaving three Guns, five hundred rounds of Gun ammunition, and a quantity of powder behind them.

6. I have left three hundred of the 7th Punjaub Infantry as a guard in the Fort, until arrangements are made by the Joint Magistrate, Mr. Willock, for its destruction, which will be a work of some time.

7. I have to thank Major Mitchell, Royal Horse Artillery, for the good service he rendered in directing the fire of the heavy Guns, and Lieutenant Cottingham, Royal Artillery, for the unflagging energy he displayed in working his Mortars.

8. I also wish to bring to his Excellency's notice, the gallant conduct of Captain Colls, Her Majesty's 32nd Light Infantry, Field Engineer, who guided a small party of Punjaub Infantry under the walls of the place, and succeeded in introducing port-fires into the abbattis. The Enemy rushed out, and drove them away, killing the Naique, they then put out the fire, so that no effect was produced, but Captain Colls's endeavour to fire the abbattis was not the less meritorious.

9. Captain Middleton, Brigade-Major, with a covering party of ten Men of Her Majesty's 32nd Light Infantry, also placed, in the middle of the night, before I was aware of the evacuation of the place, a bag of combustibles in the middle of the abbattis in front of the wicket.

10. I received every assistance from all Officers engaged, and the Punjaub Infantry, on whom, from necessity after the Artillery, the hard work fell were most zealously and ably commanded by Lieutenant Gordon, Her Majesty's 61st Regiment.

11. Mr. Willock, the Joint Magistrate, was kind enough to assist me in every thing that lay in his power.

12. I have the honor to annex Casualty and Captured Ordnance Returns.

I have the honor to be,
SIR,
Your most obedt. Servant,

Description of Tiroul.

The Fort is of mud and nearly square in form, with seven round bastions connected by curtains. The curtains are about seven feet thick at top, with a loop-holed parapet, and on the inside have a sufficient slope to enable the defenders to ascend with ease to the terre plaine. This slope gives a great increase to the thickness of the curtains near their base. The place is surrounded (except at the gateway,) by a dry ditch about six feet deep, and the height from the bottom of the ditch to the top of the parapet, varies from 20 to 25 feet. On the North-East and South-East sides there is an impenetrable jungle of trees and thorny underwood.

On all sides there is a breast-work outside the ditch with flanking rifle pits and a thorny abbattis in front; on the West there are two lines of this abbattis about 15 apart, and very thick at the North-West angle outside the tank there is an ingeniously contrived labyrinth of entrenchments, screened from view at a distance, a part of which enfilade the approach to the gateway. There is only one entrance to the place. The West front of the Fort is comparatively open, and a view of portion of the South-West bastion, and a small part of the curtain can be obtained at the distance of 400 yards; the remainder of the place is concealed by trees. The abbattis forms the greatest obstacle to an attacking Column, as the stormers would be delayed by it many minutes exposed to a close fire from the body of the place and outworks.

FROM

Comdg. Central India Field Force.

TO

MAJ.-GENL. SIR WM. MANSFIELD, K. C. B.,
Chief of the Staff.
Camp Goolowlee, 24th May 1858.

SIR,

I HAVE the honor to report to you, for the information of His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, that the approach of Brigadier Smith's Brigade from Rajpootana to Goonah, having secured Jhansi from attack by Kotah and Bundlecund Rebels, I re-called Lieutenant-Colonel Lowth, Commanding H. M.'s 86th Regiment, whom I had detached with a Column to watch the road from Jhansi to Goonah, and I marched with the 1st Brigade of my Force from Jhansi on the 25th Ultimo on Calpee.

I was still without the Wing of the 3rd Bombay Light Cavalry, which I had sent to Goonah, to re-inforce the Right Wing of H. M.'s 71st Highland Light Infantry, on their march to join me, as encumbered with a very large convoy of treasure, and all sorts of stores, they had to cross the Sind River at a very difficult ghat; and I was not certain that they might not be exposed to a treacherous attack from the late Chandairee Garrison, and other Bundelas, who, as already reported, had made an incursion on the Jhansi and Goonah road, acting it was clear in concert with the Kotah Rebels, to the North of the Indore and Goonah road.

I left at Jhansi for its garrison the Force forming part of the 2nd Brigade detailed in the margin. I left there also Brigadier Steuart, with the remainder of his Brigade, with orders to bring up to me the 71st Regiment and two Troops of the 3rd Bombay Light Cavalry.

Hd. Qrs. Wing 3rd European Regiment.
8 Companies 24th Bombay Native Infantry.
100 Hyderabad Cavalry.
3 Guns, late Bhopal Artillery.
½ Company Bombay Sappers and Miners.

I joined Major Gall's Force at Pooch, 16 miles from Koonch, on the 1st of May. I had the honor to report on the 17th Instant, the movements of this Officer's Moveable Column, as well as those of Major Orr's Field Force.

I received information from Sir Robert Hamilton and Major Gall, whom I had detached along the road from Jhansi to Calpee, with a flying Column to watch the Enemy, and obtain information of their movements, that the Sepoy Garrison of Calpee, of all arms, re-inforced by five hundred Velaities under the Ranee of Jhansi, Cavalry from Kotah, and Guns and Troops from disaffected Rajahs, the whole under the Command of Tantea Topee, had occupied Koonch, and thrown up entrenchments which they had armed to defend the roads to the town from Jhansi, and that they were determined to make a vigorous opposition at Koonch to my advance against Calpee. All the accounts agreed that the Rebels were strong in Cavalry, Mutineers of Bengal Regular and Irregular Cavalry.

Koonch is an open town; but it is difficult to attack, because it is surrounded by woods, gardens, and temples, with high walls round them, every one of which is a defence.

I had directed Major Orr, to do his utmost to prevent the Rajahs of Baupore and Shagur, and any body of Rebels crossing the Betwa, and doubling back southwards. The two Rajahs for the purpose of carrying out this very manœuvre, separated from the Rebels at Koonch, and drove the Troops of the Rajah Goorserai, who held Kotra, commanding a ford across the Betwa, to the South bank of the river.

Major Orr crossed the Betwa, engaged the Rajahs, drove them from their position at Kotra, and took one of their Guns; but he states that it was impossible to cut off the retreat of the Rajahs, who, whilst Major Orr was attacking one part of their force, retired precipitately with the remainder some distance down the river, where they crossed at a ford and took the road Southwards, carriage and supplies being furnished them by the treacherous Rajah of Jignee. Major Orr, by my direction, marched to Koonch.

As nothing puts the Rebels out so much as turning their flank, or defences; and as the excessive heat of the day rendered it advisable, that I should not undertake a long operation against Koonch, much less a siege, I made a flank march with my whole Force to the North West; my left, the 1st Brigade, resting its left flank on the village of Nagupoora; my centre, the 2nd Brigade, under Brigadier Steuart, was in the village of Chomair; my right, Major Orr's Force, in front of the village of Oomree.

This position threatened seriously the Enemy's line of retreat from Koonch to Calpee; and it exposed the North-West of the Town, which was not protected by entrenchments, to attack.

I gave the order that as soon as the three Columns had taken up the positions which I have mentioned, they were to advance against the Town, and each effect a lodgment in it.

When we came within sight of Koonch, we perceived videttes and strong picquets of the Enemy's Cavalry outside the wood. They conformed to our flank movement, and posted themselves nearly opposite to Nagupoora.

A few rounds of shrapnel from Captain Lightfoot's Guns emptied some of their saddles, and they disappeared into the wood. The Rebel Infantry now showed in force behind a long wall to our front, and in the wood to the left of it.

I had marched the 1st Brigade a distance of 14 miles from Lobaree that morning, for the purpose of surprising the Enemy by the flank movement, and not giving them time to alter their plan of defence. To rest and refresh the men, I ordered their dinners to be cooked for them, and in the meantime battered the wall with the two 18-pounders and the 8-inch howitzer.

The half Troop of Horse Artillery advancing diagonally to their left, shelled the Infantry to the left of the wall; the Enemy in return shelled the Troop and the Siege Guns from a battery to our right. Two of our Guns were turned on the battery, and soon silenced it.

Lieutenant-Colonel Gall, Her Majesty's 14th Light Dragoons, galloped gallantly into the wood to reconnoitre. The Enemy, although he was in easy musket range of them, did not fire at him, because the shelling from the Horse Artillery had caused confusion in their ranks; he ascertained that the Infantry to the left had retreated further into the wood, having in their rear, a large body of Cavalry, that the siege Guns had driven the Enemy from the cover of the wall, but that some way in rear of it was posted a large body of Infantry with elephants.

I determined to drive the Enemy out of the wood, gardens and temples, which surround Koonch, and then to storm the town, including a dilapidated mud Fort on a rising ground, a strong position, which was opposite to the right of the 1st Brigade.

Once in possession of this position in the Town, the Enemy on our left and in our front would be cut off from the rest of their force, in the entrenchments on our right, which would be forced to retreat to the plain on the other side of the Town, pressed by the 2nd Brigade and Major Orr's Force, the 1st Brigade passing through the Town, and pressing the Enemy with whom they had been engaged.

I effected this operation by throwing the Left Wing of Her Majesty's 86th Regiment, under Major Steuart, and the whole of the 25th Bombay Native Infantry, under Lieutenant-Colonel Robertson, into skirmishing order, the 86th on the left, the 25th on the right, their flanks supported by the half Troop Horse Artillery, and a troop of Her Majesty's 14th Light Dragoons, and Captain Ommaney's Battery, and two Troops of Her Majesty's 14th Dragoons. I left Captain Woolcombe's Battery, one troop 14th Light Dragoons, and the Right Wing 86th Regiment, in a second line in reserve under the Command of Lieutenant-Colonel Lowth. The rapidity and precision with which this formation was simultaneously made, must have surprised the Sepoys. The 25th skirmishers charged into the wood, temples, and walled gardens, and occupied them under a fire of Musketry and Artillery from the Battery on our right, which re-opened its fire, and after the Guns of the Royal Artillery under Captain Field, had effectually cannonaded the houses in the streets of Koonch in their front, took them also.

I expressed to Lieutenant-Colonel Robertson and the 25th on the ground, my approbation of the gallantry with which they had gained this important position.

The 86th Regiment covered by the three Horse Artillery Guns, under Captain Lightfoot, who throughout the day, made the most of their arm, and the Troop 14th Light Dragoons, made a circuit to their left, took all the obstacles to their front, and then bringing their left shoulders forward, advanced, despite of Artillery and Musketry fire, through the whole North part of the town, and took the Fort. The manner in which the 86th, ably led by Major Steuart, performed this movement, which completed the cutting of the Enemy's line in two, adds another claim to the obligations I owe this Regiment for their very distinguished conduct on all occasions in the field.

Just as the 86th and myself with the 25th, were about to enter the Town, Brigadier Steuart, Commanding the 1st Brigade, observed that a large number of Rebel Infantry, strongly posted in cultivated ground, threatened the right of the line of attack of his Brigade. He moved up Captain Field's Battery with Captain Thompson's and Gordon's Troops of Her Majesty's 14th Light Dragoons, and a Troop of the 3rd Regiment Hyderabad Cavalry to dislodge them. The Enemy held the position obstinately, and it was not until a portion of the Infantry of the 2nd Brigade moved down on them from another direction, that they retreated, when Captain Gordon, whom I beg to recommend to His Excellency for his conduct no this occasion with his Troop and the Cavalry above-mentioned, charged and broke the mass, cutting up several of them; topes of trees favoured the escape of the remainder.

The 2nd Brigade, under Brigadier Steuart, owing to some misconception on his part, did not effect a lodgement in the Town, but moving round the South of it, their Artillery and Cavalry joined in the pursuit.

I have the honor to enclose a copy of Major Orr's Report, which shows that he did his utmost to carry out my orders.

The Enemy's line of defence being now cut in two, and their right completely turned, they retired in masses from Koonch, to the extensive plains intersected by heavy ploughed land, stretching towards Orai and Calpee, forming an irregular and very long line, five or six deep in some places covered by skirmishers at close distances, who at intervals, were in groups of small masses, a mode of skirmishing peculiar to Indians; these groups act as a sort of bastions to the line of skirmishers.

The 1st Brigade made their way through the town, as quickly as its narrow and winding streets would allow them, and searched the plains in pursuit of the Enemy.

But the Infantry had already suffered so much during the morning's sun, twelve men of the weak Wing of Her Majesty's 71st having died from sunstroke, that it would have been a heartless and imprudent sacrifice of invaluable Infantry, to pursue with that arm. They were therefore halted, as well as the Infantry of the Second Brigade, and Major Orr's Force, which had advanced through the wood, round the Town to the plains.

The Cavalry of both Brigades, and of Major Orr's Force, (except a party which I had left to watch the Jaloun, road and my rear,) one Troop of Horse Artillery, Captain Field's Guns, and the four Guns of No. 18 Light Field Battery, went in pursuit.

If, on the one hand, the Enemy had retired from Koonch with too great precipitation, on the other, it is fair to say that they commenced their retreat across the plain with resolution and intelligence. The line of skirmishers fought well to protect the retreat of the main body, observing the rules of Light Infantry drill. When charged, they threw aside their muskets, and fought desperately with their swords.

The pursuit was commenced by Captains McMahon's Squadron and Blyth's Troop of Her Majesty's Light Dragoons, charging, the first, the right, and the latter, the left of the Enemy's skirmishers.

A piece of very heavy plough caused a check in the pace, under a heavy fire of Captain McMahon's Squadron; but the heavy ground was not broad, the Squadron got through it, Captain McMahon leading the way, and cut to pieces the Enemy, who fought fiercely to the last. Captain McMahon received three sabre-wounds, but he continued the pursuit to the last. I beg to recommend him for his gallant conduct, and his unvarying zeal and attention to his duties.

On the centre, the Horse Artillery opened a hot fire on, and the Cavalry charged, the skirmishers. The Enemy now threw back the extreme right of their skirmishers so as to enfilade our line of pursuit. I directed Captain Prettyjohn to form line to the left, charge, and cut off the enfilading skirmishers, which he did effectually. This Officer, on the horses of his own Troop being knocked up, placed himself with well-timed zeal, at the head of a Troop with fresh horses which was without an Officer, and continued the pursuit with them to the end. I beg to submit his name to the favorable consideration of His Excellency, as well as the names of Captain Blyth, Her Majesty's 14th Light Dragoons, and Captain Abbott, Commanding 3rd Regiment Hyderabad Cavalry, who each very gallantly charged and captured a gun from the retreating Enemy under a heavy fire.

In the course of the pursuit, more Guns and ammunition were captured by the Cavalry.

Captain Field, with the four 9-pounder Guns of Captain Ommaney's Battery of Royal Artillery, notwithstanding the heavy plough he had frequently to go over, and the weight of his Guns, continued to turn them to good account, and kept up well with them to the close of the pursuit.

The greater part of the Enemy's line of skirmishers being killed, the remainder driven in, and the Rebel Artillery captured, the main body, the first line got into confusion, lost their nerve, and crowded into the road to Calpee, along an helpless Column of runaways. The Horse Artillery and Cavalry are now so beat by sun and fatigue, that they were reduced to a walk; the Guns were only able to rake the Column in its depth with round shot and shell, but could not approach sufficiently close to give it grape. The Cavalry on their part had only strength to reach the numerous stragglers, who could not keep up with the Enemy's main body. On reaching some wood and broken ground, about a village, seven or eight miles from Koonch, profiting by this cover, they sought safety from attack by breaking into scattered flight across the country.

The scorching rays of the sun and the pace at which they retreated, told even on the sepoys; several fell dead on the road, struck by apoplexy; many exhausted, threw away their arms, whilst others, to quench their thirst, rushed to the wells, regardless if our Cavalry were upon them.

But the sun, fatigue, and scarcity of water told still more in my Artillery and Cavalry, a great part of whom were Europeans, and had been marching, or engaged for sixteen hours. The Commanding Officers of Artillery and Cavalry having, on our arrival at the village, reported to me that they were not longer able to pursue, I halted, and having watered the horses as well as I could, marched them back at sunset to Koonch.

The Enemy must have lost about five or six hundred men in the action and pursuit; and according to their own account, the 52nd Regiment Bengal Native Infantry, or "Henry ki Pultun," which covered the retreat, was nearly destroyed. Nine Guns and quantities of good English ammunition and stores, furnished to the late Gwalior Contingent, were taken.

The defeat at Koonch gave rise to animosities and mistrust in the Rebel Army. The Infantry Sepoys accused their brother Mutineers of the Cavalry with having pusillanimously abandoned them; and all three arms brought the same charge against their General, Tantie Topee, who had disappeared at Koonch as rapidly as he had done at the Betwa, leaving to its fate, at the most critical moment, the Force which he had called into existence under the pompous title of the "Army of the Peishwa."

The Vilaities also were charged with not having exhibited, at Koonch, the stern courage on which they pride themselves; they were accused with having left the field too soon; and their excuse that they had felt it their duty to escort the Rance of Jhansi to a place of safety, was not held to be a Military one. It was said that the destruction of Vilaities at Jhansi had made their countrymen less anxious than usual to try the fate of war.

These various causes created confusion in the councils of the Calpee mutineers, my immediate advance towards that fortress made matters worse; a panic seized the Sepoys in Calpee, as well as those retreating towards it; they commenced to take different lines of retreat: and I was assured, and on good authority, that at one time there were only eleven Sepoys in the town and fort.

The unexpected arrival of the Nawab of Banda, with a large Force of good Sepoy Cavalry mutineers, some Guns and Infantry, and his energetic exertions, backed up by those of the Ranee of Jhansi, produced one of those sudden changes from despair to confidence, which mark the Indian character.

Their leaders again exhorted the Sepoys, as I learnt from an intercepted letter, "to hold to the last, Calpee their only arsenal, and to win their right to Paradise by exterminating the Infidel English." The Rebels returned Calpee its environs, re-occupying the strong positions in the labyrinth of ravines, which surround it and the entrenchments, which they had thrown up and armed to arrest my advance a few miles in front of the Chowrani (eighty-four) temples, which are two or three miles from Calpee. They had already cut deep trenches across the road near the entrenchments, and in several other places, which were serious obstacles, because the ravines on each side of the road rendered it very difficult to turn them. When driven out of the entrenchments, the Rebels could fall back on the eighty-four Temples, built, as well as the walls round them, of most solid masonry; the outwork of ravines afforded them a third; the town of Calpee a fourth; another chain of ravines between the Town and the Fort, a fifth; and finally, the Fort, a sixth and last line of defence.

The Fort of Calpee is wretched as a fortification, but as a position it is unusually strong, being protected on all sides by ravines; to its front by five lines of defence, and to its rear by the Jumna, from which rises the precipitous rock on which it stands.

Besides the Officers previously mentioned in this Dispatch, I beg leave to bring to your Excellency's favourable notice, two Officers, who have lately joined my Force, Colonel Wetherall, Chief of the Staff, and Captain Cockburn, of Her Majesty's 43rd Regiment, my acting Aide-de-Camp; Colonel Wetherall at Koonch, and since he joined my Force, has given me all the assistance which was to be expected from his coolness, valuable experience, and excellent judgment.

Sickness had deprived me of the services of some of my Staff, amongst others of that of Captain Macdonald, Assistant Quarter Master General, who, although unable to stand from illness, would, with the never-failing devotion which characterizes him, have taken part in the combat if I had not ordered him back to his bed; but Captain H. H. A. Wood, Assistant Adjutant General, and Captain Cockburn, made up amply for the deficiency, by their intelligence and unwearied zeal, under fire.

Lieutenant Baigree, Acting Deputy Assistant Quarter Master General, and Lieutenant Lyster, 72nd (late Bengal Native Infantry,) my Interpreter, deserve also to be specially mentioned; the former was severely wounded by a sword-cut which all but severed two fingers from his hand; notwithstanding he gallantly continued during the action to discharge his duties with as much efficiency as before. I had sent Lieutenant Lyster with an order to the Cavalry to charge on his way, he came across a group of some thirty Sepoys, skirmishers; single-handed, he charged in view of the pursuing Force, cut his way through and broke them; his Horse was severely wounded. This is the second time I have had the honor to mention this Officer for gallant conduct in the Field.

The exertions of Dr. Arnott, Superintending Surgeon, to take care of the Sick and Wounded, and to supply the Field and other Hospitals with Medical comfort and requisites, are as unwearied as they are successful.

I ought before now to have mentioned the conduct of Dr. Vaughan, Staff Surgeon. At the Pass of Muddenpore, where on account of the paucity of Officers, he gallantly led a party of the Hyderabad Contingent Infantry, who cleared a difficult position of the Enemy.

The great heat of the sun and the numerous Casualties caused unfortunately by it, called into play all the zeal and devotion of the Medical Department of my Force, showing how eagerly the numbers of it go into danger when duty calls them there.

Dr. Stack, of Her Majesty's 86th Regiment, was killed in the streets of Jhansi, in giving his first cares to a wounded man in the conflict.

Brigadier Steuart, C. B., Commanding 1st Brigade, reports that his best thanks are due to the Officers of his Staff. Captain Fenwick, Field Engineer; Captain Coley, Major of Brigade; Captain Bacon, Deputy Assistant Quarter Master General; Lieutenant Henry, Deputy Assistant Commissary General; and Staff Surgeon Mackenzie; also to Captain Lightfoot, Commanding 1st Troop Horse Artillery; Major Gall, Commanding Left, Her Majesty's 14th Light Dragoons; Captain Abbott, Commanding 3rd Regiment, Hyderabad Cavalry; Captain Field, Commanding No. 6 Field Battery, Royal Artillery; Lieutenant Strutt, Commanding No 4 Light Field Battery, Bombay Artillery; Lieutenant Edwards, Assistant Field Engineer; and Lieutenant Gosset, Commanding 21st Company Royal Engineers; Lieutenant-Colonel Lowth, Commanding 86th Regiment, and Major Robertson, Commanding 25th Regiment Bombay Native Infantry.

Brigadier Steuart, C. B., Commanding 2nd Brigade, mentions that his Staff, Captain Todd, Major of Brigade, and Captain Leckie, Deputy Assistant Quarter Master General, afforded him every assistance.

I beg also to bring to his Excellency's notice, the Officers mentioned in Major Orr's Despatch.

Enclosed are the Returns of Killed and Wounded, and of the Guns and Ordnance Stores captured in the Action.

I have the honor to be,

SIR,

Your most obedient Servant,

HUGH ROSE, Major-General,

Comdg. Central India F. F.

No. 147 of 1858.

FROM

MAJOR W. A. ORR,

Comdg. Field Force Hyderabad Contingent, serving in Central India.

TO

COLONEL WETHERALL, C. B.,

Chief of the Staff, C. I. F. F.

Camp Etowra, 14*th May* 1858.

SIR,

I HAVE the honor to forward the subjoined Report, for submission to the Major-General Commanding, of the part taken by the Field Force, Hyderabad Contingent, under my Command as per margin, in the Action at Koonch, fought with the Rebel Forces under Tanteea Topee on the 7th Instant.

1st Cavy. H. C. 182 Sabres. Lieutent Dowker, Commanding.
4th Cavy. H C. 137 Sabres. Captain Murray, Commanding.
1st Co. Arty. 2 6 Pr. Guns } Captain Douglas Comdg.
2nd " " 3 6 Pr. " }
4th " " { 2 12-Pr. Hrs. } Comdg.
{ 2 ½-inch Mrs. }
Left Wing 3rd Infy. 333 Bayonets. Lieut. Macquoid, Commanding.
5th Infy. 241 Bayonets, Captain Hare, Commanding.

2. I received during the night of the 6th, the instructions transmitted to me by you, directing me to move from my encampment at Aite towards my left flank, and proceeding by Bassoop and Sunnow, along my Force by its left, with the right of the 2nd Brigade which I should find resting on the village of Oomree. I marched during the night, and early the next morning, (the 7th) opened a communication with Brigadier Steuart, Commanding 2nd Brigade. From Sunnow, I advanced to Purrayta, took possession of the small village of Daree, about ¼ of a mile in my front, and occupied it with a strong picquet of Cavalry and Infantry.

3. About 8 o'Clock, the Enemy appeared in force on my right flank, a large body of Cavalry supported by Infantry moving steadily down towards Daree, apparently advancing with much determination, and having opened a fire from a Battery mounting two or three Guns, one of them of considerable calibre. I moved forward my line, and a few rounds from the Guns forced the Enemy back to their original position.

4. Having received the Major-General's orders to take ground to the left, I moved in that direction to the front of the village of Oomree, from which I advanced direct upon Koonch. In my immediate front were some gardens and walled enclosures, held in force by the Enemy, and from which a heavy fire was directed upon our line. The Artillery under Captain Douglas advanced, and its fire having silenced that of the Rebels, I ordered the gardens and enclosures to be seized by the Infantry. This was very gallantly effected by a Detachment of the 5th Infantry, consisting of two Companies under Command of Lieutenant Partridge, 23rd Bengal Native Infantry, doing duty 5th Infantry Hyderabad Contingent, a very promising young Officer, and the Enemy were very quickly driven out. At the same time, I directed the whole of the Cavalry under Command of Captain Murray and Lieutenant Dowker, to move to the right and charge the Enemy's Horsemen, who had all this time been threatening our flank. This service was promptly and effectually performed, the Horsemen being driven quite off the field at this point and forced back within the line of their supports of Infantry, occupying several deep ravines and broken ground, and from the shelter of which a heavy fire was directed. The Enemy's Guns at the same time opened with round shot and shrapnell. The Cavalry were subsequently joined by one Squadron of Her Majesty's 14th Light Dragoons, and two Horse Artillery Guns, the whole commanded by Major Scudamore, and they retained possession of the ground they had gained until the general advance, when they also followed the Enemy in pursuit.

5. The Artillery had meanwhile advanced so far as to bring it completely within range of the Enemy's Guns from two Batteries, and they were thus enabled to open upon it; a double fire of round shot, shell and shrapnell from the effects of which several Casualties occurred. The Rebel Infantry also being strongly re-inforced, again suddenly came forward with a rush in great numbers, and forced back the Detachment holding the garden. I was about to advance once more at this point, when I learnt that the Major-General with the 1st Brigade, had forced the Enemy's positions, and was in possession of the Fort and Town. The whole force now advanced, the Enemy was driven from the enclosures he held, and joining in the retreat of his main body, proceeded in the direction of the Orri road. I moved forward with the Cavalry portion of the Force under my Command, and joined with Her Majesty's 14th Dragoons, the Horse Artillery, and Horse Field Battery in the pursuit, which continued for about eight miles, cutting up a great many of the fugitive Rebels, consisting almost entirely of Sepoys of the Mutineer Corps of the Gwalior Contingent and Bengal Army. The great start obtained by the Enemy before the fact of their retreating became known; the extraordinary great heat of the day, and the utter want of water, and the exhaustion of both men and horses from these two causes, all combined to make the loss to the Enemy heavy, though it was less so than it would otherwise have proved. The Force returned to Camp at 8 P. M., having been since 2 A. M. under arms, and in the saddle.

6 My best thanks are due to the under-mentioned Officers for the gallant, zealous, and efficient aid they afforded me throughout the day and at all other times, and I beg to bring their names to the favorable notice of the Major-General :—

SIR,

I AM directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter No. 5503, dated the 23rd Ultimo, submitting the Proceedings of the Marine Court convened for the trial of Mr. Mate Pilot T. P. Firmin, on the charge preferred against him by Captain Martin, R. N., of Her Majesty's Ship Roebuck, having been drunk when in Pilotage of that Ship.

2. As you are of o[illegible], that the finding of the Court which acqu[illegible] Mr. Firmin of the charge of drunkenness [illegible] opposed to the evidence adduced on the [illegible], you directed it to re-assemble with a view to a revision of its verdict; but the Court having adhered to its original finding, you now suggest that, notwithstanding the verdict, Mr. Firmin should be suspended from rank and pay for three months, from the date on which he was placed in arrest.

3. The Lieutenant-Governor desires me to inform you, that his opinion on the merits of the

THE Southampton Mail for Bombay which left England on the 12th of June, was by some mischance, detained en route, and was brought on by a Ship from Aden, arriving at Bombay on the 22nd of July only, together with the portion of the Southampton Mail for Bombay which left England with the Madras and Calcutta Mails on the 20th of June. The Bombay Boxes by this latter Mail, contained, it appears, many covers for Calcutta and Bengal, which ought to have been included in the boxes for Calcutta, and the Mail of the 12th of June also contained covers for Calcutta and Bengal.

The above circumstances therefore will account for a great deal of irregularity in the receipt of the letters and newspapers despatched from England in June.

ACT No. XXIX OF 1858.

An Act for the relief of persons who, in consequence of the recent disturbances, have been prevented from instituting or prosecuting suits or appeals in the Civil Courts of the North-Western Provinces within the time allowed by law.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, during the recent disturbances, many of the Civil Courts in the North-Western Provinces were compelled to suspend their sittings for considerable periods; and whereas, during this interval, the time allowed by law for instituting and prosecuting original suits and appeals has in many cases expired, and it is proper to provide relief for the plaintiffs and appellants in such cases; It is enacted as follows:—

Further time allowed for instituting or prosecuting certain suits and appeals in consequence of the suspension of the sittings of the Civil Courts.

1. Whenever, subsequently to the 10th May 1857, the sittings in any Civil Court in the North-Western Provinces may have been suspended in consequence of the disturbed state of the country, it shall be competent to such Court to receive and try, or to re-admit any original suit or appeal within its jurisdiction, in which the period allowed by law for instituting or prosecuting the same may have expired during the time that the sittings of such Court were so suspended, provided that the plaintiff or appellant, according as the case may be, shall present his petition of plaint or appeal, or, if the suit or appeal shall have been previously instituted but shall have abated for want of prosecution, shall make an application for the re-admission of the same within the period of three months from the date on which the principal Civil Court of original jurisdiction in the District shall issue a proclamation, copies of which shall be affixed in some conspicuous place in the several Courts and in the Office of the Collector and Magistrate of the District, notifying that the Courts of the District, or such of them as it is intended to re-establish, have resumed their sittings.

Further time allowed for prosecuting certain suits and appeals in consequence of the difficulty of access to the Courts.

II. In like manner any Civil Court in the North-Western Provinces may receive and try, or re-admit any original suit or appeal in which the period allowed by law for instituting or prosecuting the same may have expired subsequently to the said 10th May 1857, if it shall appear to the satisfaction of such Court that the plaintiff or appellant in such suit or appeal was precluded from instituting or prosecuting it within the limited period, owing to the disturbed state of the country whereby access to such Court was rendered dangerous or difficult, provided that the plaintiff or appellant, according as the case may be, shall present his petition of plaint or appeal, or, if the suit or appeal shall have been previously instituted but shall have abated for want of prosecution, shall make an application for the re-admission of the same within three months from the passing of this Act or from the time when the cause above stated shall cease to exist.

Application for admission of special appeals to whom to be presented.

III. If the application be for the admission of a special appeal, the appellant may present his application either in the Sudder Court, or in the Court from whose decision the appeal is made for transmission to the Sudder Court.

NOTICE ISSUED BY THE OFFG. POST MASTER GENERAL, CALCUTTA.

No. 2654.

POSTAL NOTICE.

THE Southampton Mail for Bombay which left England on the 12th of June, was by some mischance, detained en route, and was brought on by a Ship from Aden, arriving at Bombay on the 22nd of July only, together with the portion of the Southampton Mail for Bombay which left England with the Madras and Calcutta Mails on the 20th of June. The Bombay Boxes by this latter Mail, contained, it appears, many covers for Calcutta and Bengal, which ought to have been included in the boxes for Calcutta, and the Mail on the 12th of June also contained covers for Calcutta and Bengal.

The above circumstances therefore will account for a great deal of irregularity in the receipt of the letters and newspapers despatched from England in June.

ACT No. XXIX OF 1858.

An Act for the relief of persons who, in consequence of the recent disturbances, have been prevented from instituting or prosecuting suits or appeals in the Civil Courts of the North-Western Provinces within the time allowed by law.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, during the recent disturbances, many of the Civil Courts in the North-Western Provinces were compelled to suspend their sittings for considerable periods; and whereas, during this interval, the time allowed by law for instituting and prosecuting original suits and appeals has in many cases expired, and it is proper to provide relief for the plaintiffs and appellants in such cases; It is enacted as follows :—

Further time allowed for instituting or prosecuting certain suits and appeals in consequence of the suspension of the sittings of the Civil Courts.

1. Whenever, subsequently to the 10th May 1857, the sittings in any Civil Court in the North-Western Provinces may have been suspended in consequence of the disturbed state of the country, it shall be competent to such Court to receive and try, or to re-admit any original suit or appeal within its jurisdiction, in which the period allowed by law for instituting or prosecuting the same may have expired during the time that the sittings of such Court were so suspended, provided that the plaintiff or appellant, according as the case may be, shall present his petition of plaint or appeal, or, if the suit or appeal shall have been previously instituted but shall have abated for want of prosecution, shall make an application for the re-admission of the same within the period of three months from the date on which the principal Civil Court of original jurisdiction in the District shall issue a proclamation, copies of which shall be affixed in some conspicuous place in the several Courts and in the Office of the Collector and Magistrate of the District, notifying that the Courts of the District, or such of them as it is intended to re-establish, have resumed their sittings.

Further time allowed for prosecuting certain suits and appeals in consequence of the difficulty of access to the Courts.

II. In like manner any Civil Court in the North-Western Provinces may receive and try, or re-admit any original suit or appeal in which the period allowed by law for instituting or prosecuting the same may have expired subsequently to the said 10th May 1857, if it shall appear to the satisfaction of such Court that the plaintiff or appellant in such suit or appeal was precluded from instituting or prosecuting it within the limited period, owing to the disturbed state of the country whereby access to such Court was rendered dangerous or difficult, provided that the plaintiff or appellant, according as the case may be, shall present his petition of plaint or appeal, or, if the suit or appeal shall have been previously instituted but shall have abated for want of prosecution, shall make an application for the re-admission of the same within three months from the passing of this Act or from the time when the cause above stated shall cease to exist.

Application for admission of special appeals to whom to be presented.

III. If the application be for the admission of a special appeal, the appellant may present his application either in the Sudder Court, or in the Court from whose decision the appeal is made for transmission to the Sudder Court.

Stamps in what cases necessary.

IV. The petition of plaint or appeal in any original suit or regular or special appeal falling within the provisions of this Act, which may be instituted, for the first time, under Section I or Section II, shall be written on stamp paper of the value prescribed for regular suits and appeals; but an application for the re-admission of an original suit or appeal, which shall have been previously instituted but shall have abated for want of prosecution, may be written on plain paper.

No original suit or appeal, which may have been instituted or re-admitted in any Civil Court in the North-Western Provinces subsequently to the said 10th May 1857, shall be liable to be dismissed, nor shall any decision passed in any such suit or appeal be reversed on the ground that at the date of its institution the period allowed by law for the admission of the suit or appeal had expired, or that the suit or appeal had abated for want of prosecution (according as the case may be); if, at the time the period allowed by law for instituting or prosecuting such suit or appeal expired the sittings in the Court by which it was cogni, zable, or in which it was pending were suspended, or access to such Court was rendered dangerous or difficult by reason of the disturbed state of the country.

Certificate of Zillah Judge to be conclusive evidence of the suspension of the sittings of the Court, &c.

VI. For the purposes of this Act, the certificate of the Zillah Judge that the sittings in any Court within his jurisdiction were suspended, or that access to any such Court was rendered dangerous or difficult, owing to the disturbed state of the country during any particular period, shall be deemed conclusive evidence of the fact.

Nowbutpore, 21st July 1858.

SIR,

I have the honor to inform you, that having proceeded yesterday to the Suspension Bridge over the river Doorghootee, as I informed you in my letter of yesterday was my intention, with Force as per margin,

Two Officers, 80 Rank and File, Her Majesty's 73rd Regiment.
20 Sikh Infantry.

I then gained information that the Rebels (whose numbers were variously stated,) had burnt the Mail and looted a village some two miles distant, and were at that time, 3½ o'Clock P. M, cooking their dinners in a garden by the side of the river Doorghootee.

I therefore proceeded towards the village named Derkillee, and previous to arriving, I saw traces of the Rebels, in smouldering timber and ashes along the road side, which apparently have been hackeries or carts. On arrival at the village of Derkillee, I found the place had been looted and the Dak horses taken, and obtained information from an old man who had been slightly maltreated, that the Rebels were cooking in a garden beside the river, about a mile from the road. I therefore advanced, and after seeing many running away before I came within shot, I detached a party under Captain Godfrey, to the front, diverging slightly towards the left flank, myself with the main body proceeding direct through the village, in which we found no one, but saw large bodies of armed men and a few horsemen fleeing on the other side of the river.

Captain Godfrey had commenced firing on the left, where the Rebels were posted in a tope of trees, and drove them across the river into a village the other side. I therefore crossed the river with the main body to intercept their retreat, and drove them out of a garden, (where we saw their dinners cooking,) and through the village, but their flight was so expeditious, that I could not get near enough them to do much damage.

Captain Godfrey reports that there were at least 200 men armed with firelocks, in the part of the village on his side of the river, and at first they seemed inclined to stand firing at his men from the houses, but on hearing the firing on their flank, and receiving some sharp volleys from his men, they fled, pursued by him through the village, and by my party on emerging from the cover; but I regret to say, from my having to skirt a bend in the river, the distance was too great to permit me to do much execution.

It being now sundown, and the Rebels in full retreat in a south-west direction from the main Trunk Road, I ceased the pursuit, and returned to my waggons, which I had left at the village of Derkillee, now some four miles distant, and reached them at about 8½ o'Clock P. M., when I started again for this place, and reached it at about 12 o'Clock at night. I am happy to say there were no casualties on my side: the loss on the side of the Rebels was 10 killed, and there were probably more slain in the villages. It is imposible to determine the numbers accurately, but I should say there must have been some 150 or 200 men armed with firelocks and 300 budmashes. The Sikhs captured some six horses, which I believe to be Dak horses.

On the road home, some of the men picked up torn shreds of letters and envelopes, which I have in possession.

I have the honor to be,

Camp, Captaingunge, District of Goruckpore,
The 27th April 1858.

SIR,

I HAVE the honor to report to you, for the information of the Right Hon'ble the Governor General, that several contradictory reports were brought in by spies, on the morning of the 25th Instant, regarding the Enemy at Belwa. One was that two Guns, one of them a Horse Field Battery Gun, had been sent, with about 200 Sepoys and some Irregulars, by the Rajah Dabee Bux, to Gonda, the afternoon before, and that he himself and the rest of the Force, with the other Field Battery Gun and three or four other Guns, were to follow the same evening or next morning. Another report came in that there was a large body of the Enemy, with several Sowars, out in front of our left, not far from Camp. Shortly after it was reported that the Enemy were advancing on us in three Columns, but no Guns. The Enemy had deceived the spies, for in the evening after dark the Guns and men sent to Gonda returned to Belwa. I ordered out the Force* immediately, being always ready to stand to our arms, and moved out a little in front of Amorah and our Camp, to meet and attack the Enemy. Other reports soon came in that the Rebels were coming down in force, in three separate Columns, considerably separated, on our right, centre and left. This obliged me to divide my already small Force into two Columns. The left Column I detached with Major Cox, Her Majesty's 13th Light Infantry, and Captain Sotheby, R. N., Commanding Naval Brigade, with two Guns, 12-Pounder Howitzers, one a small Mountain Train Gun, taking the other two with me. We moved separating to the right and left. The left Column first came into action with the Enemy. The Sowars and body of Rebels on our right soon gave way as I advanced with the right Column, and I ordered a couple of 24 Pounder Rockets, under the superintendence of Lieutenant Grant, R. N., to be thrown into a large body of the Enemy, in a wood and village, creating great confusion among them, and causing them rapidly to retire. My move to the right, no doubt, also shook, and tended to the retreat, before our left Column, of the centre of the Enemy with their two Field Battery Guns, a 12-Pounder Howitzer and a 9-Pounder, firing our own Government shot, shell and shrapnel. I pressed on more completely to drive the Enemy back, and the left Column moved to their left, after a large body of the Enemy with Guns. Receiving reports from Major Cox, by Orderly Troopers and Dr. Kirwan, Her Majesty's 13th Light Infantry, that the Enemy were in force on his left, I retraced my move, and proceeded to form a junction with the left Column across country for about two miles, and over very bad ground for Guns. On reaching the left Column, I formed up in line on their right, immediately sending forward Skirmishers from the 13th Light Infantry and Naval Column. This reinforcement and movement, and Captain Sotheby advancing with his two Guns, and the left Column moving forward at the same time, shook the Enemy into retreat; but this was hardly done, when I received an urgent report from a Villager, that the Enemy were again advancing on our right by the Belwa road. Bringing them into our then rear, and directly on our Camp, I prepared immediately to move back again to the right with the right Column, sending out a Patrol of Cavalry for information, and sending word of this to Major Cox and Captain Sotheby, and that I must leave them to deal with the Enemy on the left. I was obliged to return with the loss of a part of the 13th Light Infantry, and my portion of the Naval Column, who had got considerably in advance skirmishing, and at Captain Sotheby's request I left him the Rockets. Lieutenant Burlton, with his party of 40 Seikhs, left by Major Cox, in his rear, as a support on the Belwa road, till I should join him, I attached to my Column. While moving back across country, the Cavalry Patrol came back, confirming the report of the villager. As soon as I crossed the Belwa road, I formed up in order our small thin line, with the two Guns in the centre, and had just sufficient time for these gallant Troops to rest, and refresh a little on the ground, and to get water after the great heat and fatigue, when the Enemy moved into and occupied a wood and a village to their left in our front, and very shortly opened fire on our line from their two Horse Battery Guns. The 9-Pounder shot and shell at first fell short of our line, the former rolling by or through it. I ordered a few Skirmishers of the 13th Light Infantry immediately to occupy a wood to our right front, and the right Squadron, under Captain Jenkins, the portion of the Bengal Yeomanry Cavalry then with me, to move from our left by the rear, rapidly round to the right by the wood, and advance and threaten the Enemy on their left flank, and to press them as close as possible, and to charge whenever it was practicable. The line was immediately advanced, with the Marines and a few more of the 13th Light Infantry and the Seikhs as Skirmishers in front, to get the two small Howitzers within range. After throwing a few shell, and the rifles of the Skirmishers beginning to tell on the Enemy, and Captain Jenkins, with the right Squadron of the Bengal Yeomanry Cavalry, making a bold, steady and rapid movement, within a few hundred yards of the Enemy, they retired, but again halted in position and continued their fire. The Enemy opened fire repeatedly on the Cavalry, and three horses were wounded by a shrapnel shell; but they had no opportunity for an effective charge. Our advance was continued until we got into the wood and position the Enemy had occupied. Before the Enemy retired, Captain Sotheby had ordered two or three Rockets from the left to be thrown in the direction of the Enemy at about 2,000 yards, one of them setting fire to the village on the Enemy's right. On advancing to attack, I felt anxious to be reinforced on account of the weakness of my Column, and not knowing what numbers the Enemy might bring up from their rear, and feeling certain the Enemy must have completely retired from the left Column, as there had been little or no firing since I left it. I availed myself of the Commissioner, Mr. Wingfield's services, who was well mounted, to carry orders to Major Cox and Captain Sotheby to join me without delay, sending forward the left Squadron Bengal Yeomanry Cavalry quickly in advance, both my Orderly Troopers' horses being too fagged to move rapidly. In consequence of a Nullah with deep water and mud between us, the left Column had to move a considerable distance round by the rear to join me, and by the time they came up, the Enemy had completely retired towards Belwa. After the Troops had rested a little and obtained water, and there being no Enemy in sight, we returned to Camp, reaching it about 7 P. M.

I am happy to say we had no casualties, but the Troops had to encounter great fatigue and great heat during operations, taking up nearly the entire day, and most zealously and cheerfully did the Officers and Men of all arms go through it, though not without adding, I regret to say, to our sick list. The Enemy were reported to be about 4,000 Sepoys and Irregulars, 150 Sowars and 4 Guns. One tumbril, with some ammunition, was captured, and brought in the next morning by a Detachment of the Bengal Yeomanry Cavalry.

* All Ranks.
2 12-Pr. Howitzers.
2 Mountain Train ditto.
155 Naval Brigade.
246 Her Majesty's 13th Light Infantry.
188 Bengal Yeomanry Cavalry.
338 Gorucknath Goorkha Regiment.
45 Bengal Police Battalion.

The Enemy are reported to have lost, killed and wounded, about 60 or 80. The Rebels are very quick and expert in carrying off their killed and wounded, especially the latter, from their great dread of falling prisoners.

My best thanks are due to Major Cox, Her Majesty's 13th Light Infantry; Captain Sotheby, R. N., of H. M. S. "Pearl;" to Major Richardson, Commanding Yeomanry Cavalry; to Captain Barclay, 68th Native Infantry, in Military charge of the Gorucknath Regiment; and to my Major of Brigade, Captain Morgan, 22nd N. I., who has so often and constantly attended me in the Field, for their zealous services, and to Lieutenant and Adjutant Rowley, Her Majesty's 13th Light Infantry, who was most active and intelligent as my Orderly Officer during the chief part of the day. The zealous, active services of my acting A. D. C., the Hon'ble V. A. Montague, I am sorry I lost on this day, from his being on the sick list. My best thanks are also due to Colonel Byroop Singh Kooer, and to Major-Captain Sewukram Thappa, of the Gorucknath Regiment, for their zealous exertions with their men, and to all the Officers and Men of all arms engaged in action during these operations, for their unwearied and cheerful exertions. I was very glad to avail myself of the services of Captain Brooks, 1st Cavalry, though on the sick list, to take charge of our Camp, and the few details of Troops I could allow for its protection. To Mr. Wingfield, the Commissioner, my best thanks are due, for his kind readiness to afford me every assistance in the Field, and also to Deputy Magistrate Shekh Kairoodeen, present in the Field, and ready and active in giving every assistance. I beg to bring all to the most favorable notice of the Governor General, the Right Hon'ble Viscount Canning.

I beg to annex Reports from Major Cox, Her Majesty's 13th Light Infantry, and from Captain Sotheby, R. N., having reference to the action and operations of this day, for the further information of the Right Hon'ble the Governor General.

To

BRIGADIER ROWCROFT,

Commanding Field Force, Camp, Amorah

Camp, Amorah, 26th April 1858.

SIR,

I BEG to acquaint you, after leaving you yesterday, in charge with Major Cox, of the Left Wing and two small Howitzers, we soon found the Enemy, about 1,000, in position on the road, with two Guns, and in the topes and villages on either side. A sharp fire was kept up by both parties; but as we advanced, they retired, and dushing forward the Skirmishers, they eventually retreated along the road, firing their Guns occasionally; in doing so, having pursued them for two miles and the heat being intense, we slowly retired about the same distance, when information was received that another body, with three Guns, were firing on a small body of Cavalry thrown out to watch our left flank. We immediately moved towards them, and found, at about two miles off the road, a considerable Force with the Rajah of Gonda, in some topes and villages. After waiting about twenty minutes to keep up communication with you, I advanced with the Howitzers, and after a few shots from the Enemy, they retired, several shells with good effect. Fourteen dead bodies being discovered in their position, we rapidly advanced on them, when Captain Chapman, with a Troop of Bengal Yeomanry Cavalry, moved quickly to the right to threaten their return to Belwa, when they precipitately retreated to the Gogra, and I understand many crossed.

As it was useless pursuing any farther, we halted, the men being much fatigued and many struck down by coup-de-soleil. We then retired, in order to join your party, when we observed you, being in hot action with another body of the Enemy, and had an opportunity of throwing a few Rockets right into the tope where the Enemy was, and which appeared to hasten their retreat.

All the Men and Officers with the Left Wing behaved admirably, and though the Enemy made very good practice with their Guns, I am happy to say, we met with no casualties; the fatigue from the intense heat was most harassing.

I beg to inform you of the Officers on the Field, and strength of the Naval Brigade.

Lieutenant Turnour, with two Howitzers.

Lieutenant Grant, with the Seamen.

Lieutenant Pym, with the Marines.

Mr. Ingles, Mate, with Skirmishers, well advanced.

Mr. Foot, Midshipman, with the other two Howitzers.

Mr. Parkins, Gunner, with Rocket.

Mr. Burton, Carpenter, early struck down with a coup-de-soleil.

FROM

MAJOR J. W. COX,

13th Light Infantry,

TO

BRIGADIER ROWCROFT,

&c., &c., &c,

Commanding Field Force.

Camp, Amorah, 26th April 1858.

SIR,

HAVING, during the engagement which took place yesterday, been entrusted by you with the Command of a Column as per margin, I have the honor to report as follows as to its proceedings.

Naval Bde., 50 men, with 2 12-Pr. Howitzers, under Captain Sotheby, R. N.
Right Squadron Bengal Yeomanry Cavalry, 80 men, under Captain Chapman.
II. M's. 13th Lt. Infy., 80 men, under Captain Van Straubenzee.
Ben. Police Batn., 40 men, under Lieut. Burlton.
Goorkha Regt., 200 men, in charge of Capt. Barclay.

Seeing that the Enemy were posted in force on the Belwa road, I at once advanced in that direction, covered by Skirmishers of the 13th Light Infantry, and Bengal Police Battalion, with the Seamen and Guns of the Naval Brigade, supported by the Goorkhas and the Squadron of Cavalry on the left flank We soon came within range of the Enemy's Guns, (9-Prs.) and were for a short time exposed to a sharp fire from them, but continued steadily to advance, Captain Sotheby taking every opportunity to bring his Howitzers into action. We moved on in this manner for nearly 3 miles, and drove the Enemy clear away from our front.

I then halted for about half an hour, when being informed by the Cavalry Patrol, which I had sent out on our left, that the Enemy were forming up in that direction with three Guns and 1,500 Men, I immediately started off, and took up a position opposite them, keeping them occupied with our Guns and Skirmishers until your arrival, when a simultaneous advance was made; however, as immediately afterwards you found it necessary to return to check the Enemy in another direction, I continued to advance with the Column under my Command until the Enemy were completely driven from the Field, and a number of them having their retreat in the direction of Belwa, intercepted by Captain Chapman's Squadron, were compelled to cross the Gogra.

This operation having been completed, I received orders to rejoin you, which I did with as little delay as possible, considering the very exhausted state of most of the men.

Both advances were made with the utmost steadiness and precision by all the Troops under their respective Commanders; but I would beg especially to express my obligations to Captain Sotheby, R. N., for his cordial and zealous co-operation with me; it is mainly to be attributed to the skill and promptitude with which the two Guns were worked under his immediate direction, that we were enabled, without any casualty on our part, to cause a considerable loss to the Enemy, as from the number of dead bodies we saw on the Field, they must have had 50 or 60 killed and wounded in our second advance; they were also obliged to leave a tumbril on the Field, which fell into our hands. Lieutenant Leet, 13th Light Infantry, acted as my Orderly Officer during the day, and was conspicuous for the steadiness and zeal with which he carried and explained my orders to the Skirmishers, on several occasions under a heavy fire.

I have the honor to be,
